

SPANELL TELLS STORY OF AUTO TRIP ONCE MORE

TAKES STAND IN HIS OWN BEHALF AT COLEMAN AND RECOUNTS SHOOTING AFFRAY.

"BUTLER KILLED HER"

DECLARES DEFENDANT WHEN ASKED BY COUNSEL WHO WAS RESPONSIBLE.

By Associated Press. Coleman, April 30.—Harry J. Spanell, on trial here charged with killing Lieut. Col. M. C. Butler at Alpine, Texas, July 20, 1916, was on the witness stand today, dramatically retelling the story of the shooting in which Col. Butler and Mrs. Crystall Holland Spanell, wife of the defendant, lost their lives. The story, which was similar to the one Spanell related at his trial at San Angelo for the killing of his wife, and of which charge he was acquitted, brought tears to the eyes of a number of the jurors, caused women in the audience to weep, while attorneys and others gave way to emotion. When Spanell had finished his story, a short recess was taken to allow time for those in court to regain their composure.

Tells of Shooting.

After reciting events which led to the shooting, which took place in Spanell's automobile, in which Spanell, his wife and Butler were riding, Spanell sobbed and out when he found his wife dead, he placed his pistol against his own head intending "to end it all, but the picture of baby (the Spanells' only child) came before me and seemed to say, 'Daddy, don't do it, I'm waiting for you.'"

The next thing he remembered, he said, "I was in jail."

Just prior to the shooting Spanell said he went upstairs in the Holland hotel at Alpine and saw Butler hurrying out of a room. He entered the room and found Mrs. Spanell clinging to a door knob, looking pale. She refused to tell him what had happened, but promised to do so when they had reached home. Going downstairs, Spanell said he met Butler and invited him into their automobile.

Demand Explanation.

After driving a short distance, Spanell said he asked Butler what he had done upstairs. Butler replied, "We just went up there to wash our hands—Mrs. Spanell, Mrs. Butler and I." Recalling a previous instance, he said, in which Butler had denied speaking to Mrs. Spanell, although he had promised not to do so, Spanell testified he said:

"I suppose if Mrs. Spanell wasn't here you would deny you were up there at all."

Here, Spanell said, Mrs. Spanell interposed something about being insulted. Butler, he said, attempted to keep Mrs. Spanell from talking.

"Butler, you are a liar," Spanell testified he said.

Butler replied that if Mrs. Spanell was not present he would "choke those words down" Spanell's throat, and then witness said, "he hit me a blow on the back of the head and pushed my head down on the steering wheel. I remembered my pistol in the pocket of the car and remember I got it."

"Butler and I grappled for the pistol. I knew if he got it away from me he would kill Crystal and me too."

Grappled With Butler.

Spanell said Butler gradually got the pistol away from him. He then got out a small pistol from his pocket. "I just heard one shot, but we wrestled across the seat. I was trying to protect myself and wife. Clouds and veils then came over me. I was thrown out against a fence. I saw Butler struggling with Crystal. I fired right at Butler. I don't know how many times. He fell out of the car. I grabbed Crystal. She didn't say anything. She was dead."

Counsel asked witness if he was shooting at Butler and him alone, or was trying to shoot his wife.

"No; God knows, I wasn't trying to shoot Crystal," he said he could not recall definitely everything that occurred. "I was in a daze," he said.

After a short recess cross examination was begun and had not been completed when court recessed until tomorrow. Questioned by State Attorney Wright, Spanell denied he was ever "drunk," defended his wife's character and said he was "not playing crazy to get sympathy."

"Did Butler shoot your wife?" "He's responsible for her death. I still say he killed her. He more than killed me."

For the second time in three months, Harry J. Spanell of Alpine took the witness stand today in an effort to clear himself of the charge of murder in connection with the killing of Mrs. Crystall Holland Spanell and Lieut.-Col. M. C. Butler at Alpine last July.

Acquitted at San Angelo of the killing of his wife, Spanell today sought

The motion was presented by Dr. I. L. McGlasson and seconded by Dr. J. L. Kessler, after a letter had been read from the Rotary club of Watertown, N. J., showing such action had been taken there.

The endorsement by Rotarians yesterday of this resolution is being made a nation-wide movement.

Smith of the Provident National bank, who keeps a record of the transactions of the Waco Clearing House. SUB TORPEDOED U. S. OIL TANKER

AMERICAN STEAMSHIP VACUUM SUNK OFF IRELAND WITH LOSS OF LIFE.

London, April 30.—An American armed steamer, the oil tanker Vacuum, has been sent to the bottom by a German submarine and it is feared that an American naval lieutenant and some of his gun crew of nine men perished in the disaster. The captain and several of the crew of the Vacuum are known to have been drowned.

While returning to the United States from a trip to Europe, the Vacuum encountered the submarine off the coast of Ireland. Scant details of the sinking are available and it is not known whether the Americans were able to bring their guns into play or if the vessel was torpedoed and sunk unharmed. This is the second armed American vessel that has been sunk in the war zone.

This year the feature races will consist of running events and auto races. President William Cameron announced William Abeel as chairman in charge of the queen's ball and the committee on appropriation.

Evidence that the government has already mapped out its plan for the enforcement of the draft plan and that the war department is completing arrangements is shown by the telegram received from Governor J. E. Ferguson by Sheriff S. S. Fleming yesterday. The telegram reads:

"Acting under directions of the president, I request that you at once get in communication with the county judge, the judges of the various voting precincts of your county, and hold them in readiness for the next ten days, within which time I will further communicate to you directions from the president for the quick enrollment of all men of military age under the act of congress just passed. Where office of presiding judge is vacant, arrange at once to fill the place. Please acknowledge receipt by wire of this message."

MEDICAL EXPERT STATES RAT'S BITE IS DANGEROUS

By Associated Press. New York, April 30.—D. Hideyo Noguchi, of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, has completed a series of experiments which show that apparently healthy wild rats in this country are infected with Weil's disease or "infectious jaundice," common in Asia and prevalent in the European war zone, it was announced tonight.

In view of the fact that thousands of Americans soon will be collected in military camps and possibly will see service in the trenches, it is feared that the disease may spread here. Dr. Noguchi will continue his studies of the disease, it is understood, in an effort to discover a possible cure or methods of securing immunity from it.

FRENCH ATTACK RHEIMS SECTOR

(War Summary, by Associated Press.) The expected battle in the Champagne region of France, following days of acute gun preparation by the French forces which was answered almost shot for shot by the Germans at last has broken. Seemingly synchronizing it with the somewhat lessened activity on the part of the British against the Germans on the Arras front, the French Monday eastward from Rheims launched an attack over a front of about four miles from the south of Beine to the east of Monte Carnillet and captured several fortified German trenches.

Delivered at midday the offensive was swift and sharp and at its conclusion the French line had been driven forward into territory previously occupied by the enemy to depths ranging relatively from 500 to 1,000 yards. Simultaneously to the east a thrust by the French northeast of Monthaut netted them a gain of about two-thirds of a mile and placed them virtually astride the Moronvillers-Nauroy road.

Little news concerning the situation along the front from Lens to St. Quentin where the British for several weeks have made notable gains has been vouchsafed in the latest official communications.

These men will select men who are informed on city manager plan and arrange for them to speak at the general meeting. It was planned to keep roll on the members and when a member of the committee of "50" missed as many as three meetings he would be dropped from the club.

By Associated Press. Washington, April 30.—A war revenue measure designed to raise not less than $1,500,000,000 by direct taxes during the coming year will be reported to house ways and means committee tomorrow by a sub committee which has been drafting the bill in secret sessions. Reduction of the income tax exemption from $3000 and $4000 to $1000 and $2000 for single and married persons respectively and an increase of the excess profits tax from 8 per cent on all amounts over 8 per cent and $5000 to 16 per cent, are two of the sub committee's proposals.

Marine Corps in Wire Thanks News For Aid in Work

The following telegram was received by the News yesterday from Major General George Barnett, commanding the marine recruiting work:

Washington, April 29.
Editor News, Waco, Texas:
The United States Marine Corps today reached its full authorized strength of 17,400 men. The publicity given our needs by the newspapers, which resulted in the making known of our slogan first to fight, quickly brought the needed men to the colors. A further increase of the marine corps to 30,000 men has been recommended to congress, and sincerely believing that the increase will be granted for the period of the war, I am going ahead with recruiting. Red-blooded young men wishing to be first to fight will probably not have long to wait.

On behalf of the officers and men of the marine corps I wish to express our hearty appreciation of the able assistance and hearty co-operation these corps to their full strength. Waco has responded splendidly to our call. I am going to ask further assistance and co-operation to recruit the additional 12,600 men whom we need on the subject of a special marine corps week June 10 to 16, inclusive, when we will make an extra effort to fill our corps to 30,000 men before the close of the fiscal year.

GEORGE BARNETT,
Major General Commandant.

MID-WEST GIVEN OPPORTUNITY OF MEETING JOFFRE

FRENCH WAR ENVOYS WILL MAKE TOUR OF UNITED STATES.

PLAN MANY WELCOMES

SPRINGFIELD IS ON ROUTE OF NOTABLE JOURNEY—SECURITY IS URGED.

By Associated Press. Washington, April 30.—France's war mission will leave Washington on a tour of eastern and middle-western states, arranged to give its members an opportunity to see as much of the country as possible within a limited time.

The distinguished Frenchmen will go directly to Chicago from Washington and later will visit Kansas City, St. Louis, Springfield, Ill.; Philadelphia, New York and Boston.

Members of the mission, including Rene Viviani, its head; Marshal Joffre, hero of the Marne; Admiral Chocheprat, one of the foremost officers in the French navy, and the Marquis de Chambrun, descendant of General Lafayette, will travel on a special train as guests of the United States government. The party will include, among others, members of "Marshal Joffre's staff, headed by Col. Jean Fabry, 'the blue devil of France,' who says he is half American, as he has an American wooden leg, replacing a limb shot away in action.

Many Invitations Come.

Itinerary was determined upon after hundreds of invitations had been received by the mission from all sections of the United States. Some came from cities on the Pacific coast and they, as well as many others, had to be declined because the early presence in France of the leading members is imperative and only a short time can be spent. During the tour conference between representatives of the United States and members of the mission will be temporarily suspended; the work to be resumed when the mission returns to the capital.

The departure of the mission from Washington will mark the end of its stay as guests of the government in the capital. When the members return they will have the status of high commissioners of France, here for formal negotiations.

No Changes.

The itinerary was arranged by the state department, in conference with leading members of the mission, and official announcement of the details of the tour issued tonight by the department say that "the program now has been definitely and finally decided upon and cannot be changed. It was necessary to arrange the schedule so that invitations could be accepted which were the most practicable. Extraordinary precautions to insure the safety of the party while traveling have been taken.

"Because of the responsibility that will attach to the government in caring for the persons of the members of the commission," the state department announcement says, "it is expected that the times of their arrival and departure at different places and the routes by which they are to travel between known points be not now published.

Ask Secrecy.

"The press and citizens of the various cities which are to be visited are requested to refrain from indulging in speculation on these matters. The people officially responsible for their entertainment in the various cities to be visited are officially notified so that their arrangements can be made, but the information will not be for publication. The routes of their progress through the streets of the various cities and the program of their entertainment can be made public."

Members of the French mission from the time of their departure from France have looked forward almost as much to their forthcoming tour as to their visit to the national capital. Several of the military members had hoped to visit Valley Forge, the scene of the winter encampment of the revolutionary army, but for various reasons the tour will not include that historic place. The trip to Springfield, Ill., will be for the special purpose of visiting the tomb of Abraham Lincoln, admired and revered by every member of the mission. Some simple ceremony of homage and tribute very likely will be arranged.

Elaborate plans for the entertainment of the mission are being made in each of the cities they are to visit.

CATERS TO PEOPLE WHO CARE.

Society

Mrs. Harold Parmelee has invited a few friends to bring their sewing for an informal afternoon on Wednesday, naming Miss Polly Hughton, Miss Elizabeth Patton's popular guest, as the honoree.

MRS. W. E. ANDREWS FOR MISSES BRUYERE.

Mrs. W. E. Andrews gave a pretty breakfast Saturday morning in honor of Misses Ruth and Edith Bruyere.

The table was very artistic with its centerpiece of a bride's cake, trimmed with wild roses and ferns. The cake rested on a reflector, and a small bud vase rose from the middle of the cake, with a single perfect rose. The hand-painted place cards bore out the wedding motif with their clever little cupid. A color scheme of pink and white had been carried out in all details, the living room and dining room having vases of flowers in the favorite colors. A delicious four course breakfast was served. After the breakfast the guests went into the music room for a pleasant hour of music.

Guests for the breakfast were Mesdames W. E. Andrews, A. E. Schaeffer and Frank Jones; Misses Beverly Laster, Bruce and Carrie Morgan, Jewell Johnson, Edith Bruyere, Ruth Bruyere.

Mrs. Schaeffer is planning a party for the brides-to-be within the next two weeks. Mrs. Frank Jones and Miss Laster will entertain jointly for them at some near date.

WACO HIGH GIRLS AT MAY FETE.

Miss Sarah Winifred Lanham and Miss Edith Frazier were chosen to represent Waco high school at the Southwestern university May fete which is now going on at Georgetown.

The high school representatives from all over the state were banqueted last night, and a reception followed, given by the May queen, Miss Hazel Davis of Corsicana.

Today is May day and an elaborate program is being carried out. The Waco girls will return with their report of the affair on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom McCullough left today for a visit with their son, Oran McCullough, who is in Southwestern university, and also to attend the May day festivities.

MR. AND MRS. F. J. WELLS FOR MISS HAMILTON.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Wells entertained with a dance at the Country club on Saturday evening in honor of Miss Ola Mae Hamilton of China Springs. The club rooms had been prettily decorated with spring flowers, sent by friends whose gardens are bearing abundantly. Mick's orchestra furnished the music for the delightfully informal and pleasant dance, made doubly enjoyable on account of the coolness resulting from the rain of the night before. The club caterer made and served the punch. The guest list included a large number of the young people of the city.

BAYLOR UNIVERSITY TO BRING WOODLAND PLAYERS.

Baylor university will bring the Woodland Players to Waco again this year. They will appear on Baylor campus in four new and attractive plays on May 18 and 19. Those in charge of this feature have been working for several years toward securing the famous old morality play, "Everyman" for Waco. Plays built around it, such as "Everywoman" and "Experience," have proved to be very popular. "Everyman" is acknowledged to be the best and finest example of morality play in literature. Written centuries ago, it is still so full of vitality, and exemplifies so perfectly human hopes and frailties, that it might have been written of this age.

Moliere's delightful comedy, "The Learned Ladies," is on the list of this spring's attractions. For those who love good comedy this will be a treat. Shakespeare will not be left out of the circle of plays. He will be represented by one of his most beautiful and artistic creations, "A Winter's Tale." This play has never been given at fresco in Waco and those who can vouch for its beauty and appeal on the regular stage will be glad of the opportunity to see it under the stately trees of Baylor's campus, with the wonderful new lighting system recently installed. Miss Kearns and George Carleton Somes will of course have the leading parts in this as in the others.

The "piece de resistance" of the series will be Maeterlinck's "Pelleas and Melisande." This powerful drama by the world's greatest living dramatist has an appeal as old as the world. Baylor's setting for this play is peculiarly appropriate, especially for the fountain scene, and this is expected to be the best thing, dramatically speaking, that has been seen in Waco for a long time.

The First Aid class, which has been meeting on Tuesday and Friday at the Red Cross headquarters, will meet at Cameron park today instead. The pavilion at the entrance has been designated as the meeting place. The hour will be given over to practical demonstration work, such as bandaging wounds, tying severed arteries. The interest being taken in this work has been very gratifying.

JUNIOR EUTERPEANS HAVE DANCE SATURDAY.

The Junior Euterpean club set the climax on their year's work by giving a dance. Mrs. Joe S. Thompson, grandmother of the secretary, Miss Gertrude Haythornwhite, opened her home to the club. The parlor and library had been thrown together for the dancers, and two tables set for bunco players. Vases of pretty spring flowers added the touch of beauty without with a spring dance would be incomplete. The coolness of the night following a night of rain made the dancing especially enjoyable.

Punch was served by Mrs. Virginia Ryan and Mrs. Joe S. Thompson. ALL RUN-DOWN AND NERVOUS

SAYS THIS LADY WHO HAD TO SUPPORT FAMILY OF FOUR. READ BELOW HER STATEMENT ABOUT CARDUI.

Tallapoosa, Ga.—Mrs. Sallie Eidson of this place writes: "I was in very poor health, all run-down, nervous, had fainting spells, dizziness and heart fluttering. I had these symptoms usually at my... times. I had a very hard time, working for seven years in a hotel after my father died. I had to support our family of four. I read the Birthday Almanac and thought I would begin taking Cardui. I received good benefit from it. I am sure it will do all that it claims to do. I took three or four bottles before it began to show effects. After that I improved rapidly and gained in health and strength. I took nine bottles in all. This is the only time I have taken it. I was down to 108 pounds and I gained to 122. I felt like a new woman. I couldn't sleep before and had to be rubbed. I would get so nervous and numb. And all this was stopped by Cardui."

The true value of a medicine can be determined only by the results obtained from its actual use. The thousands of letters we have received every year for many years from grateful users of Cardui are powerful tributes to its worth and effectiveness.

BENEFIT CARD PARTY AT COUNTRY CLUB.

A circle of seven members of the Shakespeare club gave a benefit card party at the Country club on Saturday. As each had pledged $2 toward the fund for entertaining the State Federation in the fall, it was necessary to clear $21. This sum was cleared.

The head prizes fell as follows: Miss Anna Fry Jones, Mrs. L. A. Potter and Mrs. Davis Gurley; consolations, Mrs. J. W. Whitworth and Mrs. Lee Dewey. Punch and cake were served by Miss Alta Harrison and Hazel Spencer. The gardens of friends had contributed bountifully of their spring blossoms and roses, making the club rooms very attractive.

THE EGG SPECULATOR CACKLES.

THE agricultural department announces that eggs are going into cold storage at 34 cents per dozen, which is 50 per cent higher than last year.

This means that during most of next fall and winter American housewives will have to pay 50 per cent more for eggs than last fall and winter. Figure it out, please.

It means 80 to 90 cent eggs, doesn't it?

Just about—and, likely, more too, for the cold storage man will not only put that 50 per cent extra he's now paying for eggs upon the prices, but his expenses are going to be higher and the housewife can safely bet the good will of her cook that these increases will also go upon the price of eggs.

You will not injure your power of imagination by picturing yourself, father and the children coming out to the breakfast table, cold mornings next winter, to find eggs $1 the dozen.

Your family, Mrs. Housewife, is in the center of a ring. Circling 'round and 'round go high-priced hen food, high eggs, high cold storage, high everything. You can sit in that center and tearfully roar for government help or you can help yourselves. How?

Well, in the case of eggs, by preserving eggs now for next winter's use. And eggs are a fine substitute for meat and other foods that are going to fly above the reach of anti-aircraft guns.

The cold storage men are taking 50 per cent more risk in putting up eggs for you. They simply have 50 per cent more confidence in your helplessness. They plan to hard-fry you in December.

They will, unless you scramble them in May.

THE LIE

By DR. FRANK CRANE.

THE other week I saw two shows—one a play called "The Fugitive," written by John Galsworthy and performed by Emily Stevens; the other a photoplay "Gods Man," with Bronson Howard as author and H. B. Warner as leading man.

They were both exquisitely performed, interesting, even gripping. They were both plays with a message. You felt there was a purpose, a gospel of some sort in the author's mind he wanted to set forth.

And they were both lies.

Not nice, entertaining, mildly diverting and tonic lies, but plausible, dangerous, and vicious lies.

The lie in the Galsworthy play consisted in the theory that there is no chance for a woman to succeed or to be happy if she deserts a husband that is offensive and tries to make her way by her own resources, and that all she can do in such case is to sell her body. The world, the plain inference from the play was, will not tolerate a pretty woman nor yield to her its rewards unless she sacrifices her virtue.

Of course a beautiful woman is likely to be tempted, and the road to hell will be made easier for her than the path of decency. But she does not have to yield. To say that she does is to repeat the everlasting whine of the weak and morbid. This world has plenty of prizes for the charming woman who is loyal, true, and fine. But she has to fight for them, like the rest of us.

The trouble with Mr. Galsworthy's heroine is not the wicked, respectable folk that conspired to crush her, but it is that she is a combination fool and weakling. That kind of a woman has no business rebelling. The place for the sloppy, self-pitying soul is inside the gates of respectability. When such little lambs get out of the pasture the wolves usually get them.

Mr. Warner attempted to show us that to be helpful, straight, and generous is to be crucified. Maybe so. But we cannot resist the feeling that the young gentleman portrayed was not "God's Fool," but just a common or garden fool. If he had mixed a few cents worth of ordinary intelligence with his large amount of grand and noble ideals he would not have come to grief.

People are very ready to indite virtue and kindness and justice for the defects of their minds and wills. There's nothing the matter with the eternal verities of virtue, but weaklings who think they afford a cheap and easy road to happiness are doomed to disappointment.

To be good successfully you have to be great.

Let the little souls stick to the conventions; they were made for just such.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.

BY O. O. MCINTYRE.

New York, April 30.—The Tin Woodman is no more. I passed the drab undertaking establishment where the body of Dave Montgomery was placed until it was taken to the burial ground. The most noted stars in stardom came to pay their respects and all left red-eyed and weeping. The blow falls the heaviest on Fred Stone, who with Montgomery made the trade mark "Montgomery and Stone" known all over the world.

It is perhaps so that Montgomery should not rank with the greatest comedians of this and other days, but rankings are pretty much driven away. Dave Montgomery was the foil of the team, the lasser and reposeful member whose dun-colored background gave the more brilliant partner his chances.

But his ability cannot be minimized. Without him Stone would have been a truly great comedian, but he would not have been Fred Stone. The Scarecrow without his Tin Woodman to be oiled through the funnel sat neatly in the top of his head would be as incongruous as Johnson without his Boswell. Their companionship was a sacred thing.

Many offers were made Stone to leave his partner, but he turned them down coldly without even mentioning them. Montgomery realized it, however, and his sense of appreciation was greatly quickened by this loyalty. They were pals and gave a marvelous exposition of give and take. Stone will probably retire from the stage. He is one of the richest actors in the world, a fact not generally known. He owns skyscrapers, ranches, country homes, theatres and valuable stocks. Dave Montgomery has gone to a higher realization of life to wait for his pal.

Baby Week

By H. ADDINGTON BRUCE.

Today, May Day, Baby Week, opens in many communities, to continue until next Sunday. As the name suggests, it will be a week devoted to public discussion of ways and means of conserving the little children of the nation, both through organized action and through enlightened effort by individual fathers and mothers.

If you are a parent, and if Baby Week is celebrated in your community, attend as many meetings as you can. Read, and clip for future reference the newspaper reports of the advice given and the recommendations made.

Should your community not be celebrating Baby Week, do not let this prevent you from celebrating it yourself. For the next few days make a special point of studying infant care and hygiene, for the better safeguarding of the child you love so dearly.

Call to mind that last summer, in sections of the United States and Canada, a dire epidemic cost the lives of many children. There may not be, and it is earnestly hoped there will not be, a repetition of this epidemic the coming summer. Even so, the heated summer months are certain to hold special dangers for children.

Make this a week of preparation against these dangers. Talk with your doctor as to the best methods of raising your child's vitality. Discuss with him questions of diet, ventilation, dress, etc.

Also talk with the librarian of your public library. Obtain the names of standard books on child hygiene. Look through these carefully. Order from a dealer the books that most appeal to you as being practically helpful.

And do not limit yourself to preparation to conserve the health of your child's body. Remember that he has a mind also.

Remember that, according to modern psychologists the influences to which a child's mind is subjected are often all-decisive in shaping his future career. It is in the home and in the first years of his life that forces are set in motion which may forever incline the child toward good or evil.

Study, therefore, helpful manuals in child training. Get one or two of these to add to your private collection of books on hygiene. Resolve to keep them close at hand, where you can refer to them frequently.

All this, undeniably, maps out a busy Baby Week for you. But the burden it imposes on you is light compared with the splendid results it may bring. And it is work you should undertake, not merely as a parent, but also as a patriot.

Every year thousands of young lives are cut short by preventable diseases. Every year a new crop of juvenile delinquents springs up, delinquent simply because their parents did not know how, or neglected, to train them aright.

The untimely deaths and the delinquencies bring sorrow to the parents. In addition, they mean an economic and social loss to the nation, they imperil the strength and prosperity of the nation.

Baby Week is thus a call to patriotism as well as to parenthood. Do not miss its significance. Do not let it pass unheeded by you.

Little Stories for Bedtime

What Sammy Jay Saw.

By THORNTON W. BURGESS.

Sammy Jay, hiding in a bush where he could see the doorway of the new home in the Old Pasture, saw Reddy Fox place on his doorstep the result of his hunt and then heard him talk softly. Almost at once Mrs. Reddy appeared and took what Reddy had brought. She disappeared inside the new house and Reddy turned and trotted off in the direction of the Green Meadows. It was clear to Sammy that Reddy was going hunting again. Hardly was Reddy out of sight than Mrs. Reddy appeared once more, stood for a moment on her doorstep as if trying to decide something, and then trotted off swiftly toward the Green Forest.

All this time Sammy Jay sat perfectly still. His eyes snapped and twinkled and his busy brain turned over and over the surprising things he had found out and tried to decide how he could make use of his knowledge. You know, there is an old saying that two and two will always make four. This is just a queer way of saying that if you are smart enough to put two facts together you may be reasonably sure that they will make a third fact. That is what Sammy Jay was doing as he sat there in that bush near the new home of Reddy Fox.

"Sammy Jay," said he, talking to himself while he waited for Reddy or Mrs. Reddy to return, "you're a smart fellow. You're a very clever chap. You've found out something that I'm sure not one of your neighbors knows. You've found the new house of Reddy Fox. You've found out that Reddy doesn't eat all he catches, but brings some home and gives to Mrs. Reddy. You've found out that Mrs. Reddy takes the food down inside the house and almost right away goes hunting herself.

Now two and two is always four, Never less and never more, Never more and never less— That's a fact and not a guess.

"Now I can't see down inside that house, but I don't have to to know what the secret is that is causing all this hunting on the part of Reddy and Mrs. Reddy. Babies! Just as sure as I'm a smart and clever Jaybird there are baby Foxes down there. My gracious, the very idea of Reddy Fox having babies! I can't imagine it. He must feel very grown up. I wonder how many he has. I wish they would come out. My, but this will be news to tell on the Green Meadows and in the Green Forest! Sammy, Sammy, you certainly are a smart bird. There isn't any doubt about it, you certainly are smart."

Sammy continued to say nice things about himself and to chuckle as he planned how he would spread the news and thought of how whimsical would be Reddy Fox. Of course, it wasn't a bit nice of him to have such thoughts and it was very conceited of him to think himself so smart. But he is smart. There can be no question about that. And I suppose he can't very well help knowing it.

So Sammy sat and waited and watched and planned mischief and wished those babies would come out so that he could know how many Reddy had. Mrs. Reddy was the first to return. She came so silently that sharp as Sammy's eyes are he didn't see her until there she was right on her doorstep with something in her mouth. Then she disappeared inside her house. Sammy waited and waited until at last his patience gave out. He fairly itched all over to tell the news. So at last he spread his blue wings and started back for the Green Forest.

Laugh With Us

Thomas Mott Osborne, the "voluntary millionaire convict," said of the food in Auburn prison:

"It is fresh and wholesome. Better than that of some cheap restaurants. Better, certainly, than the Chat Mort provides."

"The restaurant of the Chat Mort is in the Latin quarter. You get there a rabbit stew for 3c, and a table d'hôte dinner of seven courses, including rabbit pie, is provided for 15c—vin compris, that is to say, wine included.

"Well, at the Chat Mort one evening a Wicitan complained: 'Waiter, this here b'iled chicken is no good.'

"But the waiter excitedly and volubly replied: 'Oh, impossible, monsieur! The chicken, on the contrary, is very good indeed. On Monday it was roast veal, on Tuesday it was boiled pork, yesterday it was cold chicken and today it is boiled chicken. It will not be bad until tomorrow, monsieur, and then we waiters will eat it.'"

A judge, a military officer and a priest applied for lodging at an inn where there was only one spare bed, so the landlord had to decide.

"I have lain in garison for fifteen years at Bitt," said the officer.

"I have sat as a judge for twenty years in Dublin," said the judge.

"And I have stood in the ministry for twenty-five years at Navan," said the priest.

"That settles the question," said the landlord. "The aged priest has stood for twenty-five years, so has the best right to the bed."

A young man walking through a foreign quarter of New York stopped with an amused smile in front of a small eating place, on the window of which was painted in whitewash, "Lam stew."

The proprietor, from his doorway, asked what the joke was and the young fellow explained about the missing "b" in "lamb" and was thanked for the correction.

The next day, passing the same restaurant, he found that while the bill of fare had changed the spelling lesson had not been forgotten. The proprietor was now offering "Clamb chowder."

LEMONS BRING OUT THE HIDDEN BEAUTY

Make this lotion for very little cost and just see for yourself.

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to bleach the skin and to bring out the roses, the freshness and the hidden beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white this way. Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a whole quarter pint of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle, then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When applied daily to the face, neck, arms and hands it should help to bleach, clear, smoothen and beautify the skin.

Any druggist will supply three ounces of orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons.

MOTHER! IF TONGUE IS RED GIVE "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS."

Any mother realizes, after giving children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative as they love its pleasant taste and thoroughly cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or if the child is bad, stomach sour, look at tongue, mother! If coated, give a spoonful of this harmless "fruit syrup," and in a few hours all the biliousness, constipation, sour bile and indigestion passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child.

When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a spoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

Don't be discouraged Resinol Soap will clear your skin

Many and many a girl has a clear, healthy complexion today because some friend came to her with that sound advice. Resinol Soap not only is delightfully cleansing and refreshing, but its daily use reduces the tendency to pimples, offsets many ill-effects of cosmetics, and gives nature the chance she needs to make red, rough skins white and soft.

If the skin is in bad shape, through neglect or improper treatment, a little Resinol Ointment should at first be used with the Resinol Soap, to hasten the return to normal conditions. Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment are sold by all druggists.

For Itching Scalp

You do not want a slow treatment for itching scalp when hair is falling and the dandruff germ is killing the hair roots. Delay means—no hair.

Get, at any drug store, a bottle of zemo for 25c or $1.00 for extra large size. Use as directed, for it does the work quickly. It kills the dandruff germ, nourishes the hair roots and immediately stops itching scalp. It is a pure, antiseptic liquid, is not greasy, is easy to use and will not stain. Soaps and shampoos are harmful, as they contain alkali. The best thing to use for scalp irritations is zemo, for it is safe and also inexpensive.

If Food Disagrees Drink Hot Water

When food lies like lead in your stomach and you have that uncomfortable bloated feeling and your stomach is sour and burning it is usually because of excessive secretion of acid or food fermentation from chronic catarrh.

In such a case a good and safe treatment for catarrh of the stomach is to take before meals a teaspoonful of pure bisaturated magnesia in half a glass of water, as hot as you can comfortably drink it. The hot water washes the mucus from the stomach walls and draws the blood to the stomach while the bisaturated magnesia is a solvent for mucus, thus increasing the efficiency of the hot water treatment. Moreover the bisaturated magnesia, as physicians can tell you, is a powerful but harmless antacid which when taken after meals quickly neutralizes the excess acid and sweetens your stomach contents.

This hot water and magnesia treatment is a far better plan than that of simply artificially digesting your food and sending it still a sour, fermenting mass into the intestines where it will do almost as much harm as in the stomach. As there are various forms of magnesia be sure in following above directions to ask the druggist for Bisaturated Magnesia (either in powder or tablet form) which is especially prepared for the correction of stomach acidity.

TODAY'S BEAUTY HINT

It is not necessary to shampoo your hair so frequently if it is entirely and properly cleansed each time by the use of a really good shampoo. The easiest to use and quickest drying shampoo that we can recommend to our readers is one that brings out all the natural beauty of the hair and may be enjoyed at very little expense, by dissolving a teaspoonful of canthrox, which can be obtained from any druggist, in a cup of hot water. This makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head. This when rubbed into the scalp and onto every strand of hair, chemically dissolves all impurities. It is very soothing and cooling in its action, as well as beneficial to both scalp and hair. After rinsing out the lather so created, you will find the scalp is fresh, clean and free from dandruff, while the hair dries quickly and evenly, developing a bright luster and a soft fluffiness that makes it seem very heavy.—Advertisement.

The revival drive in Waco continued with energy yesterday. Dr. W. M. McIntosh, who is conducting services at the Austin Avenue Methodist church, spoke to the high school student body yesterday morning at 9 o'clock on the subject of "Assets and Liabilities." He also conducted a general meeting at the Austin Avenue church yesterday morning and last night spoke at that church on the subject, "That Book I Have Written."

Just now the women of that church are holding no special meetings, but participate in the services being held regularly each day and evening.

According to Rev. Culver, pastor of the Austin Avenue church, the services are growing in interest and the very best of success is anticipated.

The meetings will probably close this week. Almost all present last evening volunteered to bring some one tomorrow evening.

Delicious steak "toasted" Yes Sir!

THE way you like it, exactly—thick, savory—butter melting on top; tender and juicy. It's "toasted," isn't it (of course you call it broiled).

You wouldn't want it raw, would you? Cer-tain-ly NOT!

And for exactly the same reason you'll like Lucky Strike Cigarettes. The Burley tobacco—it's toasted. Puts in a new flavor, and seals it in—that's what toasting does to Burley tobacco.

A new creation in cigarettes

New, different—there is no other cigarette with this new toasted flavor. You can compare it to your morning toast when it's buttered hot.

LUCKY STRIKE is the real Burley cigarette, too—another entirely new idea. You know Burley tobacco—you've been pouring it out of green, blue and red tin boxes for years. Now get the Burley flavor—toasted—in a cigarette, and join the LUCKY STRIKE smoke circle today.

METHODISTS IN CONFERENCE ON COLLEGE PLANS

LORENA GATHERING TURNS
DOWN PROPOSAL TO CHANGE
MERIDIAN STATUS.

An important proposition was presented to the Waco District Methodist conference last week in Lorena, looking to making the Meridian Junior college a conference college instead of merely under the jurisdiction of four districts of the Central Texas conference. The proposition lost by only one vote. Had it carried the matter would have gone to the annual conference for ratification and endorsement. The college is located at Meridian in Bosque county.

A roasting temperance report, written and submitted by Chairman W. J. Barcus of the committee on temperance, was adopted, this report calling for marked advances, and claimed much progress in temperance work.

Delegates were elected to the annual conference as follows: T. B. Stanford, Waco; W. J. Barcus, Waco; Hudson, Lorena; Ward, Mart. The annual conference will be held in November.

Plan Annual Conference.
Among the visitors were President C. M. Bishop of Southwestern university, Georgetown; Dr. H. A. Boaz, president of the Texas Woman's college, Fort Worth, and Frank Reedy, of Southern Methodist university, Dallas, and others. The gathering was presided over by Presiding Elder J. A. Whitehurst of Waco, and the opening sermon was preached by Rev. F. A. Ashburne, others who preached during the time being Revs. H. A. Boaz, Alonzo Monk and G. F. Winfield, the latter the president of Meridian college.

Reports showed that conditions are gratifying all over the district. All who attended were most hospitably received at Lorena. Sessions were held in the Methodist church there.

Your last chance to buy the Encyclopaedia Britannica, printed on genuine India paper, ends in 2 or at the very latest 3 weeks from today.

We are close to the day when we must stop taking orders. The few remaining sets of the Britannica are selling so fast that if you want to be sure of getting a set, NOW is the time to order it.

And it is NOW or NEVER if you desire to own this great work in its most convenient form—the popular “Handy Volume” Issue, printed on genuine India paper.

These remaining sets are the very last in the whole world, printed on the famous India paper, that can be offered.

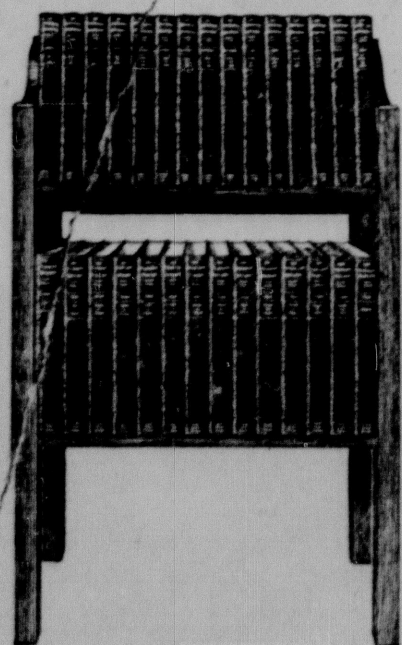

They are printed on the last India paper manufactured before the war made it impossible to get the special kind of flax from Belgium, Ireland and Germany and hemp from Russia for the making of India paper. No more of these raw materials is available, or will be procurable for years after the war, for the making of India paper.

And the only sets of the Britannica for sale anywhere in the world, printed on this beautiful paper, are right here in America.

Orders have greatly increased in the last month—the sales have jumped to an average of more than 2,000 sets a week. This fact makes it certain that the few remaining sets will not last beyond 2 or 3 weeks.

If you know the Britannica, know how useful it will be to you, and are quite sure you should own a set, order it immediately. This is your only assurance of getting it.

When the last day is announced on which we can accept orders with any prospect of filling them, it is reasonable to expect a great rush of orders to come in at the eleventh hour. This was shown last June when a slight increase in the price was made on account of the increase in the cost of bookmaking materials, and we received over 17,000 orders after the last day.

NOW or NEVER!

We are giving you warning NOW to save you any disappointment in never getting one of these very last sets.

In this case when the last set is gone you will not be able to buy a first-hand set of this great library of knowledge, printed on genuine India paper, at any price.

Today in England, Australia and other countries people who failed to buy the Britannica when they had the same chance that you have now are advertising for it and have to pay whatever premium may be put on it by any owner who can be induced to sell his set.

Don't wait until the eleventh hour. Don't put off ordering until “tomorrow.” Take the time today to send in the “reserve order” coupon and then you will be sure of getting a set.

You should satisfy yourself that the Britannica will be useful to you in your business or work, increasing your mental efficiency and earning power. You still have a chance to know what the Britannica is and what it will mean to you.

Go at once to

and examine the Britannica for yourself. You can there see a complete set, investigate its contents in your own way, run through the index of 500,000 facts and learn all about this great work. You can compare the large-size, higher-price Cambridge issue and the popular “Handy Volume” Issue, which sells for about 60% less. You can also select the style of binding you prefer.

We don't want any one to order the Britannica unless he is positive that it will be useful to him. We could sell many thousands more sets if more India paper for printing them could be obtained.

Hence we desire that every single one of the remaining sets shall go to men and women who will find the Britannica a practical everyday help.

Go at once and see the different issues. You can leave your order at the same time. But this is YOUR LAST OPPORTUNITY—remember, when the last one of these remaining sets is sold you will NEVER AGAIN have an opportunity to buy this valuable work printed on genuine India paper.

Facts about the Britannica Proving its Usefulness

This great work is a complete survey of all knowledge.

Its 29 volumes contain 41,000 separate articles, covering every branch of human thought and activity.

It contains 500,000 indexed facts.

It is cosmopolitan in its viewpoint, unbiased in its presentation and authoritative in every particular.

It is the work of 1500 world-famous scholars and experts, each chosen because of his special knowledge of the subject he wrote about.

It could not be written today because the war would make it impossible to obtain from the contributors, who represented every civilized country, the same calm, unprejudiced view of national and historical subjects.

It deals with knowledge in the broadest, most practical way, making this knowledge usable for any purpose that knowledge is necessary.

It is written in an attractive, entertaining style which appeals alike to the business man, the woman of the home and the college professor.

It is a work that interests children, helping them in their studies and providing the foundation of a practical education.

It is owned and used by more than 175,000 men and women in all vocations, this number including more than 100,000 business men and women.

Only a few sets are left and when these are sold no more can be offered printed on genuine India paper. Therefore, it is if you desire a set.

NOW OR NEVER

Those who cannot go to the store may use this reserve order form, which will be legally binding upon us to reserve one set for you, just the same as if you ordered it in person.

By Associated Press.

Austin, April 30.—When the senate convened today Senators Strickland and Westbrook introduced a resolution protesting against the creation of a deficiency appropriation of $90,000 for the equipment of the new general land office now in course of construction. It is further provided in the resolution that hereafter the legislature will not approve or ratify such unwarranted expenditures. DEWBERRIES BEING PICKED ALONG ROAD TO MEXIA

Showing the eagerness with which people are caring for all edibles, Clarence Kelly relates an incident which marked a recent auto trip to Mexia. Mr. Kelly noticed group after group of people around the fence corners of farms, and so many of these groups were in evidence that he finally decided to investigate the cause. He found that the people were picking dewberries, which are just beginning to ripen in the sander soils of the Groesbeck section. In the groups were white people, negroes and Mexicans, all busy gathering the berries.

GARDENS TO BE PROTECTED FROM STOCK DEPREDATION

Stock will not be allowed to depredate on the valuable gardens which have been grown in Waco this season, if the city authorities can keep the animals from running at large by vigorous enforcement of the ordinance relating to impounding of loose stock.

Mayor John Dollins and the commissioners all are favorable to the garden crusade, and will do their best to prevent stock depredations. Police will be vigilant, and will take up all loose stock found, and also will answer quickly calls to portions of the city where horses or cows have been caught by residents for impounding. There is likewise an ordinance against chickens and other fowls running at large, which will be made effective.

MONDAY'S MARKET REPORTS

NEW YORK COTTON WAS IRREGULAR AND UNSETTLED

New York, April 30.—The cotton market was irregular and unsettled today, the feature being liquidation in the crop months. New cotton months were relatively steady on talk of reduced acreage and there was a good deal of switching by old crop longs into new crop positions, with the market closing steady at a net decline of 3 to 4 points. July contracts sold off from 20.19 to 19.93 and closed at 20.00.

COTTON OIL RECOVERS ON PROFESSIONAL SUPPORT

New York, April 30.—After opening lower under scattered liquidation in the downward turn in grains, cotton oil recovered on professional support and with a rally, but reacted partially near the close under realizing sales and lack of outside buying. NEW ORLEANS COTTON IS LOWER THROUGHOUT DAY

New Orleans, April 30.—Although the cotton market here was lower today most of the session, the trend was shown and there were recoveries which put the price slightly above the level of last week's close. Some liquidation appeared and bear traders were more aggressive than of late. The close was at a net decline of 11 to 14 points. Late in the session the steadiness was derived from a department, quotations there being unexpectedly raised 12 points to 19.69 for middling. A feature of the spot news was the report that one vessel now in port is loading 18,000 bales for Genoa, the average freight rate on which is something like $5 a bale.

LAST OF "BLACK CASES" IS COMPLETED AT GALVESTON

Galveston, April 30.—An instructed verdict of not guilty was given in the Fifty-sixth district court today in the case of the state against George Tier, accused of murder in connection with the death of William Black, an anti-Catholic lecturer, at Marshall, Texas, in February of 1915. This is the last of the so-called Black cases which were transferred to Galveston two years ago. This case had been set for May 4. Judge Street called the case this morning, a jury was empaneled and when the state announced that it could not make a case on the evidence in hand the court directed that a verdict of not guilty be brought in.

Earlier in the month the similar case against George Ryan was dismissed on motion of the state before the jury empaneled. The defense appealed from this decision.

John Copeland, accused of murder in connection with the same affair, was acquitted by a jury in the Tenth district court last autumn after a trial which lasted several days.

Wife's Perversity.

Old Crabton is particularly severe upon his wife in argument. During a recent passage at arms between the two his wife managed to interpose with:

"My dear, I wish you wouldn't be so very positive about everything. Remember, there are always two sides to every question."

Whereupon Old Crabton roared back at her: "Well, that's no reason why you should always be on the wrong side!"—Chicago Herald.

Mr. Jackson left yesterday for Corsicana and after delivering an address and getting the work in form there he goes to Dallas, where the work will be presented to the State Ginners' association. The ginners will have the work presented to them by a very prominent Texas business man, F. A. Kemp of Wichita Falls, Texas. Mr. Jackson will establish the Dallas headquarters while attending the meeting of the Texas ginners.

Very Puzzling.

Eddie, who had always attended a Baptist Sunday school, was taken on a visit to Sunday school at a Methodist church. "Mamma, how is this?" he said. "I thought you said this was a Methodist Sunday school."
"So it is, my dear."
"Well, but mamma, the lesson was all about John the Baptist."—Christian Herald.

WHEAT DEPRESSED WHEN EUROPE PURCHASE HALTS

Chicago, April 30.—Assertions that European buying of both cash wheat and future deliveries had been halted, did a good deal to depress wheat prices today and a big advance was more than wiped out. The market closed unsettled, with wheat 34c net lower to 34c gain. Corn finished 14@15c down, oats 14c off to 14c advance and provisions varying from 37 cents decline to a rise of 10c. Corn was weaker. Provisions averaged higher as a result of buying by commission houses.

LEON SPRINGS CAMP WILL NOT HOLD STATE'S RECRUITS

By Associated Press.
San Antonio, April 30.—So many Texans are offering themselves for training as reserve officers that southern department headquarters has found it necessary to divert applications originating in Oklahoma to the Fort Logan H. Root's camp. It was the original plan to have the Leon Springs camp serve both Texas and Oklahoma, but events of the last few days have made it apparent that Texas will more than supply the 2,500 men desired for the encampment. A total of 1,326 men is the present enrollment and the rate of application is growing from day to day.

SHERIFF S. A. KELLEY COMES OUT WITH A STRONG STATEMENT

HIGH TEXAS OFFICIAL SAYS HE FEELS LIKE DIFFERENT MAN SINCE HE BEGAN TAKING TAN-LAC.

Hon. S. A. Kelley, of Odessa, Texas, sheriff and tax collector of Ector county, is still another prominent citizen who comes forward with his unqualified endorsement of Tanlac, the medicine that is accomplishing such surprising and gratifying results throughout the south and west.

Sheriff Kelley not only stands high in his own community but his acquaintance and popularity extends over a wide area of his state. While on a trip to Fort Worth a few days ago he called at Renfro's Seventh Street Drug Store for more Tanlac and in relating his experience with the medicine, said:

"I have never paid much attention to patent medicines. In fact, I had very little faith in any of them, but my wife has been keeping up with the Tanlac testimonials and I began taking it more because she begged me to than anything else. Well, I'm mighty glad now I took it for the results have been fine and there's nothing too good for me to say for Tanlac. I had been in a general run-down condition for several months, had no appetite and couldn't enjoy anything to eat and I also had rheumatism and suffered with severe rheumatic pains. My back ached, my kidneys were out of order and gave me a lot of worry and inconvenience and I had that tired, worn-out feeling all the time. My liver was sluggish, too, and I was bothered a great deal with constipation and headaches.

"I just needed a general all round building up and Tanlac has certainly done that very thing. I have taken only two bottles so far but I have already improved until I feel almost like a different man. My appetite is fine and I can eat just anything I want and what I eat is giving me nourishment and strength. My rheumatism is much better, my kidneys don't bother me like they did and my sleep is sound and restful. My liver trouble is much better, I'm relieved of constipation and headaches and feel more active and energetic than I have in months. Tanlac has done me a world of good and I'm glad to recommend it to my friends and the public."

Tanlac is sold in Waco at Morrison's Old Corner Drug Store under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative—Adv.

Many More Women Are Willing to Testify

Many women in Texas and everywhere in the United States sing the praises of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and many are the women in this state who are willing to testify to its merits, as do the following:

Mrs. Bettie Lacey, residing at 1018 E. 3rd St., Austin, Texas, says: "I have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and found it to be a fine remedy for woman's ailments. It helped me when other remedies failed. It is surely a great medicine."
Mrs. Lucy E. Yoakum of 2322 Clinton Ave., Fort Worth, Texas, says: "I was in such bad health and so despondent at times that I couldn't do my work. I tried everything I could hear of. Doctors treated me but I only got relief for a short time until I tried Dr. Pierce's wonderful medicine. Have been in much better health since using 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I weighed 140 lb. at that time, now I am well and hearty and weigh 130 lbs. I praise Dr. Pierce's medicine very highly and recommend it to every woman suffering from woman's ailments."
Mrs. Lizzie Epperson, who lives at 1220 Gould Ave., Fort Worth, Texas, says: "I can recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to any woman suffering from trouble peculiar to women or nervousness. I was very nervous and losing weight so fast I became alarmed over my condition. I could not do any housework. A friend told me about 'Favorite Prescription' and I tried it and began gaining in weight at once."
Favorite Prescription can be obtained at almost any up-to-date drug store, in either liquid or tablet form. If not obtainable at dealer's send $1.00 to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Entirely vegetable and herbaceous, drawn from native roots and herbs.
Mrs. Clara Sudeth of Paris, Texas, says: "I have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for many things and find it to do all that he claims for it. I think it is a wonderful medicine."
